

PROServerCENTER

95% of process servers say they want more clients, but 85% feel they do not have the right tools to do so.

The Process Server Center is a legal professional organization whose mission is to set a national standard for the process service industry in the United States. The organization's approach provides specific, actionable solutions to both process servers and law office managers through:

Development of relevant training: Online programs brought to you by the experts in nationwide process service management help process servers, paralegals, and legal assistants eliminate hassles in process service.

Administration of PROServerLIST: the first nationwide exclusive Directory for Certified and Pre-Screened Process Servers. Built on the foundation of more than 100,000 successfully completed service of process, PROServerLIST connects government agencies and legal professionals directly to its online directory of Pre-Screened and Certified Process Servers in order to improve the legal support services experience for both legal clients and process servers.

The Paralegal Writer

Jackie Van Dyke, Certified Paralegal and owner of The Paralegal Writer, inspires best writing practices and confidence in legal writing communication. She is a faculty member in the Paralegal Studies Program at The George Washington University and a member of NALA's Continuing Education Council. She has numerous published articles in NALA's FACTS & FINDINGS – THE PARALEGAL MAGAZINE, NFPA's NATIONAL PARALEGAL REPORTER, and the Paralegals Connect Newsletter. Jackie's passion is to help paralegals at all levels with persuasive memo writing, precise legal citations, and improved grammar and punctuation.

The Paralegal Writer offers a quarterly email course, "Memo Writing Using IRAC," to prepare applicants taking the NALA Skills Exam.

The Paralegal Writer recently launched the "Legal Scribble Sessions" – a five-week email course focused on writing general correspondence, demand and status letters, emails, along with grammar and punctuation exercises.
